

The HAT Acceptable Use Policy

This Acceptable Use Policy describes acts that are prohibited when using HATDeX's services and products, including the HAT, Rumpel and MarketSquare.

You agree not to use HATDeX's services and products to commit or promote, or assist anyone in committing or promoting, illegal or abusive acts, such as:

1. any act that violates any applicable law, code or regulation;
2. the submission of unsolicited commercial electronic messages;
3. sending deceptive or false information, including through the "spoofing" and "phishing" techniques;
4. the use of a HAT account, other account, computer or computer system without the owner's authorization;
5. unauthorised access to data, and computer systems or networks;
6. any act resulting in an attempt to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a computer system or network or to otherwise breach or circumvent security or authentication measures without being expressly authorised by the owner of such computer system or network;
7. the interception of data or traffic on any computer network or system without being expressly authorised by the owner of such computer system or network;
8. the interference of data or traffic on any computer network or system without being expressly authorised by the owner of such computer system or network (for example, the deletion or alteration of data or the introduction of any computer virus).
9. the promotion of products or services other than yours in the absence of HATDeX's authorisation;
10. the creation of HAT accounts by any means other than our public interfaces;
11. the circumvention of storage limits or any other limits imposed by HATDeX;
12. any act that might render the HAT network target of attacks;
13. any act aimed at damaging the HAT network or any other network without being expressly authorised by its owner;
14. any act disrupting or resulting in a disproportionate interference with the operation of the HAT network or that causes an excessive use of its resources;
15. the upload or sharing of unlawful pornographic materials or materials depicting extreme acts of violence;

16. the use of HATDeX's services and products for the purposes of (i) advocating hatred based on race, religion, nationality, ethnicity, sex, gender identity, sexual preference, disability; (ii) promoting war; or (iii) promoting the commission of a crime.
17. the use of our Services for the planning or commission of a crime, or for concealing it after its commission;
18. any act resulting in a privacy violation;
19. fraudulent or defamatory acts;
20. any act resulting in any of our IP addresses being listed on any abuse database;
21. any act resulting in the infringement of intellectual property rights, including downloading, uploading, sharing, copying or using copyright-protected materials without being expressly authorised by the owner of such materials;
22. any act resulting in the publication of confidential information, which you are not authorised to disclose;
23. gambling activities, when they are in violation of the applicable laws in the jurisdiction where content is hosted or accessed;
24. any other unlawful action under the law applicable to your HAT or to you.